Code of Conduct for Parents

The essential elements of character-building and ethics in sport are embodied in the concept of sportsmanship and six core principles: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and citizenship. The highest potential of sport is achieved when competition reflects these "Six Pillars of Character".

I therefore agree:

1. I will be a positive role model for my child and encourage sportsmanship by showing respect and courtesy, and by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches, officials, and spectators at every game, practice, or other event
2. I will not engage in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct such as booing and taunting, refusing to shake hands, or using profane language or gestures with any official, coach, player or parent
3. I will not encourage any behavior that would endanger the health and well-being of any athlete
4. I will teach my child to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence
5. I will ensure that my child treats other players, coaches, officials, and spectators with respect regardless of race, creed, color, sex or ability
6. I will teach my child that doing one's best (hard work) is more important than winning so that my child will never feel defeated by the outcome of a game or his/her performance
7. I will never ridicule or yell at my child or other participant for making a mistake or losing a competition
8. I will emphasize skill development and practice and how this benefits my child over winning
9. I will respect the officials and their authority during games and will never question, discuss, or confront coaches at the game and will take time to speak with coaches at an agreed upon time and place
10. I will provide and expect a sporting environment for my child that is free from drugs, tobacco, and alcohol and I will refrain from their use at all sports events
11. I will refrain from coaching my child or other players during games and practices unless I am an official coach of the team
12. I will inform the coach of any physical disability or ailment that may affect the safety of my child or the safety of others

I also agree that if I fail to abide by the aforementioned rules and guidelines, I will be subject to disciplinary action that could include, but is not limited to, the following:

- Verbal warning from an official, head coach and/or head of league/club organization
- Written warning from an official head coach and/or head of league/club organization
